

BIKING IN PROVENCE: 4 NIGHTS "Arles to St Remy"

EXPLORE Provence at your own pace

Day 1 : Arrival

Upon your arrival in the wonderful Roman town of Arles, you will have time to settle in to your hotel and then perhaps start on some explorations by foot. Visit the spectacular Roman amphitheater where Provençal style bull fights are still regularly held (the bull is not killed), or sit in one of the many popular cafes of the Place du Forum, for an end of the day pastis, like a local. Arles is also where Van Gogh once lived and where he painted many of his most well-known works. We provide a map with self-guided walks to help in your explorations. At the end of the afternoon you will meet with our Trip Manager, who will check the fitting of your bikes, and answer any questions.

Day 2 : Arles to Saint Hilaire d'Ozilhan 46 km / 29 Miles

You leave Arles after breakfast this morning, heading northwards along the easygoing terrain of the Rhone River plains, pedaling along quiet and tiny roads. You ride into the town of Tarascon (with the castle of Roi-Rene) and cross the Rhone River into the town of Beaucaire on the opposite bank. Stop there for a break to admire the pretty medieval manor houses, and perhaps to find some lunch. The ride continues northwards through the vineyards and small hamlets east of Nimes, passing through Remoulins on the Gard River, before heading into the beautiful countryside surrounding your final destination, the small village of Saint Hilaire d'Ozilhan. You may decide to visit one of the local wineries for a tasting, before your dinner (note the DELUXE and CLASSIC itineraries stay in nearby neighbouring villages).

Day 3 : Loop ride to Uzès and the Pont du Gard 50 km / 31 Miles

Today you have a beautiful loop ride through the garrigues and pine forests of the Cevennes region to the west. The route takes you through St Quentin la Poterie, a charming Provençal village, with a history of pottery making and that has become home to many artists today. Continue on to the town of Uzès, with its picturesque Place aux Herbes, its restored Renaissance facades, and perhaps climb up the steps to enjoy the view from the impressive Ducal Palace. Your return ride takes you past incredible Pont du Gard, an exceptionally well-preserved 2000-year old Roman aqueduct (and UNESCO Heritage site). The three levels of arched tiers of this aqueduct-bridge, above the Gardon River nestled amongst olive trees and wild rosemary, are quite beautiful, and have become one of the most-photographed sites in Provence.

Day 4 : Saint Hilaire to St Remy de Provence 40 km / 25 Miles

You leave Saint Hilaire, heading to the small Provencal town of Aramon, where at one time the powerful and beautiful Diane de Poitiers (mistress to the King of France) ruled as seigneur. The village had one of the most important ports of the Rhone in history, and its bridge is where you will cross over the Rhone River. Then detour slightly northwards to ride through the village of Barbentane, where you can take a moment to visit the beautiful Italian Renaissance-style chateau (still inhabited by the Marquess of Barbentane), and perhaps stop for some lunch. Your ride takes you around the Montagnette hill, but if you wish, take the option up into the "Montagnette", with its typical Provencal flora and fauna, to see the Abbey Saint Michel de Frigolet, and perhaps buy a gift in the shop, still run by the monks. Finish along orchard-dotted plains into St Remy de Provence. Your final dinner this evening is included.
