EXPLORE

DORDOGNE AT YOUR OWN PACE

Day 1 : Arrival in Rocamadour

Welcome to the Dordogne! We will meet you at the train station and transfer to your first hotel in the breathtaking pilgrimage village of Rocamadour, where we will provide you with your trip package and check the bike fitting. You'll have time to explore the ancient streets snaking one above the other, on this vertiginous site before your first dinner, included this evening.

Day 2 : Loop ride to the Gouffre de Padirac 38 or 51 Km / 24 or 32 Mi

Your first ride takes you through the gorgeous countryside of the Regional Park of the Causses de Quercy with rolling hills and valleys and beautiful villages. Your route brings you to the Gouffre de Padirac, one of the most incredible geological sites in all of France; descend into the caverns and visit the underground lake in small boats, with the stalactites and stalagmites reflected in the limpid waters around you. The long option takes you through one of France's "Prettiest Villages", Loubressac, before turning back towards Rocamadour for a second evening in time to enjoy a drink in one of the local cafés while deciding where you might like to eat dinner this evening.

Day 3 : Rocamadour to Souillac 43 Km / 27 Mi

Today's ride takes you northwards towards the Dordogne River, passing through the lovely village of Mayrinhac, and crossing the river at St Sozy. Continue on a lovely route niched between the banks of the river and the shade of the cliffs through pretty Creysey; and then up to beautiful medieval Martel, with its seven historic towers. Quiet countryside and villages bring you at last to Souillac itself, on the banks of the river. Take some time to meander through town and admire the 11th century Saint Mary's Abbey - Souillac itself dates back to the foundation of a Benedictine Monastery in the year 655! Your dinner this evening is included. (Please note the Deluxe version spends the night outside nearby Lacave at Chateau de la Treyne).

Day 4 : Souillac to Sarlat 40 Km / 25 Mi

Today's ride is beautiful, following the bends and curves of the Dordogne. In the morning, you have a climb away from the river to go to the impressive and beautiful Chateau of Fenelon. As with so many of the region's castles, the site was attacked, damaged, and rebuilt a multitude of times over the centuries. You finish your day following an easiergoing bike path through lush greenery all the way into the medieval town of Sarlat. This incredible UNESCO heritage site, the largest Medieval ensemble in Europe, is best explored in the evening, when the beautiful "lauze" stone roofs and tiny cobblestoned streets are lit up beautifully by the municipality. Dinner on your own this evening, with a multitude of choices.

Day 5 : "The Prettiest Villages of France" 38 to 47 Km / 24 to 29 Mi

The loop ride for the day is one of the most picturesque, passing through some of the "prettiest villages of France" (this is an official national rating) like La Roque Gageac, built flat against the cliffside overlooking the Dordogne, and with original troglodyte dwellings. You'll see medieval castles lining the river that warred across from each other... Take a short detour to Beynac, with its imposing castle built by the Barons of Beynac. Climb up to the war museum at Chateau Castelnau. You may well decide to lunch in Domme. This village, an excellent example of the Bastide villages (fortified villages) of Medieval France, was built in the 13th century by Philip the Bold; there are still examples of medieval graffiti by the templar knights, and a spectacular panorama to the valley below! Return to Sarlat for a second night. Dinner included tonight.

Day 6 : Sarlat to Montignac and Lascaux 44 Km / 27 Mi

Your route today takes you northwards from Sarlat through the Dordogne's rich countryside, where truffles and cep mushrooms, walnut orchards, and grapes grow, and where you shouldn't be surprised to see goose and duck farms, for the famous foie gras in the truly picturesque villages. Your final stretch follows the banks of the winding Vezere River, before arriving in Montignac, a pretty town in its own, but made famous today as it is the home of the renowned prehistoric cave painting site of Lascaux. You'll be able to visit the newly opened Lascaux IV reproduction, just on the outskirts of Montignac, before deciding where you'd like to dine, of the town's many options. (*please note the Deluxe tour stays in nearby Coly, passing Montignac en route)

Day 7 : Departure - Bon Voyage!

After a final breakfast, say goodbye to Dordogne until next time! We transfer you to Souillac or Brive-la-Gaillarde train station for your further travels. Connections are easy for your further travels.
